MESSAGE: Ms. Greer: Pursuant to your request today I am sending you my previous correspondence with Cingular, some of which was sent by Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested, some by regular mail and some by fax, disputing my Cingular bills. I enclose the relevant correspondence which dates back to 11/3/2005 which clearly demonstrates I was and am disputing the bill and all products and services allegedly provided by Cingular. You said to me today you had received no notice of the fact I was disputing the bill which clearly must be an error on Cingular's behalf. I never received notice from your company that there was 30 days to dispute the bill. Be it known that I formally and legally dispute the bill and always have as well as disputed the services and the phone product provided by Cingular. Any steps taken to disgrace, defame or negatively effect my credit will be met with a lawsuit to protect my name and reputation as I have not paid the alleged outstanding invoices as a result of Cingular's misrepresentations and defective service and products.

Re: 917-282-2619 Contract/Razor Phone

Dear Mr. Carter:

I was referred to you and given your fax number by Mr. Williams, Cingular representative. My cellular phone issues are documented in your files. I suggest you review the file prior to calling me. I have repeatedly tried to get proper service from Cingular and have failed. It is clear to me that Cingular's service is defective and among other things misrepresented on a widespread basis. The amount of complaints I have heard from other Cingular customers, frankly, is staggering. If these issues are unresolved by 5:00 p.m. Monday I will institute an action against Cingular that I will seek to expand to class action status.

Very truly yours,

Aaron Richard Golub

Re: 917-282-2619 Contract/Razor Phone

Dear Mr. Sigman:

I had ongoing issues with my cellular phone which are documented in Cingular's files which I urge you to requisition and review prior to contacting me. A sample of the failures experienced in Cingular's service on specific days follows; however, these incidents occurred on practically a daily basis throughout the United States where I was located, since the inception of my agreement:

LOS ANGELES

10/28/05

- Beverly Glen and Comstock (Los Angeles), call failed
- 10600 Wilshire garage (Los Angeles), call cannot be completed as dialed
- 11:00 a.m. Speaker phone did not work
- call cannot be completed as dialed
- 12:50 p.m. Sunset before West Gower (Los Angeles)
call cannot be completed as dialed

11/1/05

- 11:20 a.m. La Cienega and Cadillac (Los Angeles)
call cannot be completed as dialed
- 11:25 a.m. La Cienega and La Tijera (Los Angeles)
call cannot be completed as dialed (x2)
- 11:27 a.m. Dialed 310-403-0976. Would not call out

- 11:44 a.m. Vicksburg and 96th St. (Los Angeles)
call cannot be completed as dialed
- No outgoing calls at all on La Cienega
- Cut off speaking to 917-841-7976
- 11:45 a.m. same message
- 11:46 got through to 310-403-0976
- 12:40 p.m. 110 Freeway, dialed 631-287-0041, call cannot be completed as dialed
- dialed 212-752-3040, call cannot be completed as dialed

NEW YORK CITY

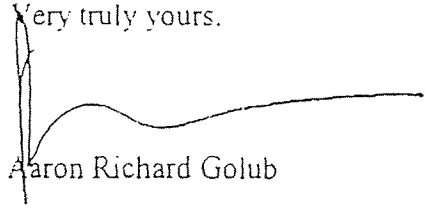

11/2/05

- 208 720 0300, 58th - 62nd on Madison Ave. (New York City)
called failed (twenty five times)

About two weeks ago, Nicole from your Retention Department called and offered me the Motorola V5551 and would not fully credit me for the purchase of the Razor phone. I have repeatedly tried to get proper service from Cingular and accordingly I had to return to Verizon where the service has been far superior, in fact, beyond any reasonable comparison with Cingular. Clearly, Cingular's well advertised service is defective and among other things misrepresented on a widespread basis to the public. The amount of complaints I have heard from other Cingular customers, frankly, is staggering. Two weeks ago Adrienne in your store on Madison Avenue near East 46th Street in New York City refused to tell me the name of the regional director or the name of anyone I could contact at Cingular to discuss these problems.

If my issues are unresolved immediately I will institute an action against Cingular that I will seek to expand to class action status.

Very truly yours.

Dear Mr. Sigman:

I refer you to my letter dated November 11, 2005 (copy enclosed).

The incompetent level of service I received from Cingular caused me to cancel the contract on November 2, 2005. Consequently I refuse to pay the charges of $468.09 (including late payment fees) as detailed on your invoice for the billing cycle 12/3/05-1/2/06 (copy enclosed). Please cancel this invoice immediately, and return all sums paid to you to me.

Re: TransUnion Credit Report for Aaron Richard Golub file number 170780972

Dear Mr. Gambill:

This office represents Aaron Richard Golub.

I am writing to dispute inaccurate and incomplete information contained in TransUnion's ("TU") credit report of Mr. Golub dated April 11, 2007 ("Credit Report"). I have circled the disputed item and I have enclosed a copy of Mr. Golub's Credit Report.

The disputed item appears on page 1 of the Credit Report under the section titled "Adverse Accounts." The disputed item is from Nationwide Recovery Systems ("NRS") No. 4567462, which lists an open account in the amount of $558.00 placed for collection by Cingular Wireless ("CW"). The information reported by NRS and CW is disputed as inaccurate and incomplete. The CW account is in dispute and has been disputed since November, 2005. See enclosed copies of all correspondence between CW and Mr. Golub concerning their billing dispute as well as an April 3, 2007 letter from Citibank. Mr. Golub was previously a CW wireless customer but due to the incompetent level of service provided by CW, including without limitation, numerous dropped calls and an inability to send or receive calls Mr. Golub terminated his contract with CW on November 2, 2005. Mr. Golub discovered that NRS and CW failed to accurately report the billing dispute when he was denied a Citibank Premiere Elite Card pursuant to letter dated April 3, 2007 from Citibank. The April 3, 2007 letter indicated that Citibank's reason for denying Mr. Golub a credit card was based "in whole or in part, on information obtained in a report" from TU. Please reinvestigate this matter and delete the disputed item as soon as possible.

Mr. Harry C. Gambill
May 8, 2007

This letter is sent without waiver of or prejudice to Mr. Golub's rights to bring an action against TU and other parties deemed liable for any and all damages he has suffered as a result of the inaccurate and incomplete information in his Credit Report. Failure to take corrective steps will result in an action instituted against TU and others for any errors reported in Mr. Golub's Credit Report which Mr. Golub will seek to expand to class action status.

Very truly yours,
